TWO OFFICERS DISMISSED

Important Meeting of the Police Board Yesterday.

A PLEDGE NOT TO DRINK

Officer Nichols Dismisssed for Being Intoxicated, Bamburger Likewise Goes. Officer Hank Publicly Reprimanded. Local Clubs.

The Board of Police Commissioners met yesterday afternoon, the Mayor and Commissioner Bolton being present. Mr. Verdier did not appear at all, and after waiting for him, the Board proceeded to business. The Board of Police Commission-who is charged with being intoxi-cated while on duty, was then taken up.

The accused was absent and the Chief stated that he had notified him to be present.

Officer Taylor and Detective
James testified to the intoxicated condition of Nichols, and Sergeant Lowery stated that when he report-ed his beat he did so in a manner which caused Capt. Ladd to exam-ine him closely and report the case to the Chief. The Sergesnt said that in the station house dispensary is kept a substitute for whiskey called "squibs," which is given drunken some drug store.

NICHOLS DISMISSED.

The Mayor thought an executive session nunecessary and Officer Nichols was, on motion, dismissed from the force.

Mr. Bolton offered a resolution requiring the men to sign

Chief Rebman entered a protest against the resolution, on the ground that it would prevent his sending officers to the social clubs, which he had to do in order to SECURE EVIDENCE AGAINST CLUBS. He said that the officers had to be able to swear that they had pur chased liquor from the clubs. This provoked a discussion between the Mayor and Mr. Bolton on one side and the Chief on the other, and no action was taken.

The next case was that of Officer Hank, who was charged with being

ABSENT FROM HIS BEAT,

The Sergeant testified that he whistled for him eighteen times and searched his entire beat over, and only found him after a search of an hour and ter minutes, when Hank was insolent to him.
Officer Hank stated that he was off
